

What information do we collect?

We collect information when you register on our web site or fill out a form. If you request to receive or be made aware of certain information, we must obtain certain information to fulfill such request(s) and that will include your:

1. First, middle and last name as well as preferred name, name suffix (if any) and courtesy or professional title, if applicable
2. Home, work or other physical address, including street name, city or town name, county and state
3. E-mail address(es)
4. Telephone number(s) and mobile carrier, if mobile phone contact is requested
5. Language preference

How do we use your information?

Any information we collect from you may be used in one or more of the following ways:

- To personalize your experience (your information helps us to better respond to your individual needs or requests)
- For the purpose of disaster notices, the contact information submitted can be used by authorized government disaster coordinators or the national weather service to send emergency notices to any work or home address in the designated notification area. Our system will send these Emergency Notifications without sharing registered names, addresses or phone numbers with the sender.
- Mobile messages, especially text messages, are considered to be the most rapid method to receive emergency alerts, but it is safest if you provide as many contact options as possible
- To improve our product(s), service(s) or web site (we continually strive to improve our products and offerings based on the information and feedback we receive from you)
- To improve customer service (your information helps us more effectively respond to your customer service requests and support needs)
- To process transactions (Your information, whether public or private, will not be sold, exchanged, transferred, or given to any other company for any reason whatsoever, without your consent, other than for the express purpose of delivering the service(s) requested by you.)
- To send periodic emails or texts with information you've requested or as necessary to provide you with the service(s) you've requested. (The contact information you've provided may be used to send you information and updates based upon the services you've requested.)

How do we protect your information?

We implement a variety of security measures to maintain the safety of your personal information.

Do we use cookies?

We do not use cookies to use, store or track any information about you. We only use cookies that assist you in navigating on our site(s).

Do we disclose any information to outside parties?

We do not disclose any of your information, although the organizations that are providing these service(s) in your area are disclosing some of the information you provided in order to effectively fulfill your request to receive the information or service(s) you identified.
